A Message from Pastor Aaron:

What is the world like when God's will is done?

These words come to us through a hymn by Adam Tice and Sally Morris "What Is the World Like" ACS 1047. I love this question because when we ask it, the pondering drives us to imagine what reality we pray for every time we say, "Thy will be done." So, what is the answer?

We have multiple places to turn to for insight to this question, and the story of God's creative love and salvific work as recorded in scripture is the perfect place to start. These inspired words carry a witness of God's work in the world through centuries of storytelling, poetry, lists, and letters, and they illustrate God's everlasting effort to liberate a good creation from the bonds of sin. Through creation, advocacy, healing, hospitality, provision, protection, inspiration, instruction and more, we hear how God is working to bring about an end to suffering and death. As Christians we confess that in Jesus Christ the Incarnation, we are given the good news that God's will has been done and that sin, death, and the devil have no ultimate power over our lives and the fate of creation. The vision of a new heaven and a new earth promises no more tears of suffering or cries of lament as we are reunited in righteousness with our God. This is the story of God's will that we ponder.

Through October, November, and December, we have the joy of looking deeper into this question. The Generosity Project: 5G, which started in September is a great tool for us to use when considering the will of God. With each session we lift up ways in which God's generosity is seen and heard, and how we as creatures made in the image of God can reflect that trait in this world. These edu-worship sessions culminate with a celebration worship on October 20th, when we will gather around our table of generosity and celebrate God's abundant grace through the sacrament of Holy Communion. This Sunday will also be when we as a congregation are invited to turn in our pledge cards.

While giving financially to the church is not necessarily God's will, the ministries that we support together through our budget and special giving ideally is.

Salem's mission is:

“grounded in scripture we seek to nurture the faith and proclaim Christ's love in word and deed to each other and our neighbors near and far”

and if that is not a mission that looks to live out God's will I do not know what is. If you have not made it to one of The Generosity Projects so far, I encourage you to stick around on a Sunday as we continue to be inspired by God's story into a more generous and vibrant life.

With Thanksgiving and Advent, we continue to explore this question together. Thanksgiving is a chance for us all to ponder where God's will has been done. We are continuously bombarded by the conflict of this world. The stories that draw our attention tend to be reports of violence, division, suspicion, and deceit. Yet knowing that God is active in this world, and that the Spirit moves where it pleases, we are assured that good is all around. Our time together at church, creating music, uniting our voices in prayers, and sharing time in fellowship, are beautiful generative moments of love that reflect God's will and remind us that there is always room for hope and joy.

In the season of Advent, we hear again how God's will was embodied not in crusades or treasure chests, but in the birth of Jesus. An innocent child, thrust into this violent world, yet capable of so much love. The characters that surround this story, John the Baptist, Joseph, and Mary also embody God's will as they each live into their unique callings.

So, what is the world like when God's will is done?

Come and see, & go and be.

Pr. Aaron

Salem Lutheran Church
Mission Statement

Grounded in Scripture, we seek to Nurture the Faith and Proclaim Christ's Love in Word and Deed to each other, and our neighbors, near and far.

For the sake of Salem’s ministry and mission in 2025, this household is pledging:

General Budget: $ _____ weekly monthly yearly

Building Fund: $ _____ weekly monthly yearly

Name(s): _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

___ Simply Giving(Vanco) I already, or would like to, give through automated electronic on-line giving.

___ Envelopes: I would like to receive and use offering envelopes.

We appreciate your generosity and understand that unplanned life situations may affect the intent indicated. Do not hesitate to change this intent with either an increase or decrease.

From the Council President:

Salem Friends,

It is with God's grace that we enter into the fall season and look forward to Advent. The Lord has blessed this congregation as we continue to serve him in the community of West St. Paul and around the world.

It has been a busy summer with activities and worship services. National Night Out saw over 50 neighbors join us on the lawn for games, ice cream and fellowship. (pictures below)

Another highlight was our joint service with St. Stephen's. Originally to be an outdoor event, we moved to St. Stephen's when we learned that Marthaler Park would not be ready for our gathering.

The service at St. Stephen's was attended by over 100 folks and many viewed it online. A joint choir of 26 voices was directed by Carl Lipke with Pastor Aaron and Pastor John Snider sharing the preaching. It was an inspiring day.

We thank Carol Olson and many volunteers for providing some great summer adventures on Thursdays for local kids.

We are wrapping up our Scholarship Drive for Magome, Tanzania, and San Lucas, Guatemala. Many thanks to all of you who generously support this program of God's love that reaches halfway around the globe. I'll be reporting final results soon to the congregation. Because of the newsletter deadline, final results were not available for publication.

It is exciting to see the return of the Jubilee Ringers and the Chancel Choir to our regular worship season. Carl, Keith, and Judy work wonders with some great choir and hand bell members. We appreciate all they lovingly do, and welcome them back to a full season.

Led by our Stewardship and Properties and Operations committees we have begun discussions and research into installing solar panels on Salem's Education Wing to provide electricity for all our operations at Salem. This could be a very exciting project for us as we seek to become more environmentally conscious of God's creation. During daylight we could produce power for Salem and feed extra power into the Xcel grid. At night we would then draw the power from the grid.

There have been some Adult Forum's on this idea and there will be many more congregational discussions to see if this is a way forward for us. Whichever way we go, it will be a decision of the congregation.

There are many things coming up that I hope you will take advantage of: Campfire Sing-Along, Feed My Starving Children food packing, Beer and Hymns, Trunk or Treat, Jazz Concert, Thanksgiving and Advent socials, Art and Crafts Show, Health Fair, and others. Detailed info on many of these can be found in this newsletter and on our website. You can see that our committees are busy making things happen at Salem and in the community.

Blessings to all in the name of Christ,
Jack Schlukebier, Council President

From the Parish Nurse:

Acute stress can happen in response to a specific event and usually goes away once the stressor is resolved. Examples of acute stressors can be as trivial as running late, losing an important item, or being stuck in traffic. Or it could be something like the loss of a pet or a life transition, such as retirement or moving.

Chronic stress can happen in response to long-term stressors that might be difficult to overcome or out of your control and result in feeling pressured and overwhelmed for a long period of time. Examples of chronic stressors could be managing a chronic illness, financial or food insecurity, or living in an unsafe environment.

Every person is different and will react to stressors in unique ways. What might be a small stressor for one person could be big for another, and vice versa. It's important to listen to your body and pay attention to how stress affects you without comparing yourself to anyone else. Signs of stress could be:

- Sudden mood changes, sleep problems
- Changes in mental health, such as feelings of anxiety or depression
- Feeling overwhelmed, lack of motivation and focus
- Restlessness, angry outbursts
- Memory or concentration problems
- Overeating or loss of appetite
- Increase blood pressure, altered immune system, headaches, fatigue, stomach upset, chest pain, and muscle pain.

Why does stress management matter?

Stress is a part of life, and everyone experiences it constantly. However, with chronic stress, there can be risks to your health long-term, such as developing chronic fatigue, cardiovascular diseases, chronic pain, or mental health conditions. Everyone is different, but here are some ways you can be proactive about stress management:

- Moving your body with regular exercise on most days of the week.
- Get enough sleep, keep a routine
- Eat a healthy, balanced diet
- Stay away from tobacco, alcohol and illegal substances.
- Practicing mindfulness, deep breathing, yoga, tai chi or massage
- Checking in with yourself by journaling regularly
- Keep a sense of humor, laughter really is good medicine for it releases hormones that give us a sense of well-being
- Set aside time for yourself. Find a hobby, read a book, listen to music, or go for a walk. Spend time with family and friends
- Confide in others and ask for support when you need it

While we can't make stress disappear, we can help our bodies become more resilient to its effects over time. If you are concerned about how much stress you are feeling regularly, it's a good idea to talk to your doctor or a mental health professional (or Parish Nurse) to see what options are available.

In peace,
Debbie Lee, Parish Nurse

USE THE LABYRINTH TO HELP!

The regular use of labyrinths has been known to help reduce stress. Don't forget to make use of this wonderful tool and enjoy a time of peace and reflection.

WHOLE PERSON WELLNESS EVENT
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 2024
9:00 AM - 2:00 PM

In collaboration with the Faith Community Nurse Network, our Parish Nurse, Debbie Lee, will be hosting a Whole Person Wellness event on Tuesday, November 26 from 9am-2pm in the Fellowship Hall. All are welcome!

What is Wellness Planning?

Wellness planning provides a person-centered approach giving individuals the opportunity to take charge of their own health in a safe environment. During a visit with a nurse and a nursing student, the participant completes an assessment to develop a whole-person wellness plan, set individualized goals, get connected to resources to support wellness goals, and have their blood pressure, oxygen level, and body composition checked. Importantly, individuals have the option to complete a cognitive or mental health screening. Through data analysis and care coordination following the events, we (Faith Community Nurse Network) are able to identify programs needed within specific communities, where more leaders should be developed, and most importantly enroll participants in the programs they need to improve their quality of life. Registration information coming soon!

BEER, BURGERS & CAROLS DATE TO BE ANNOUNCED

Planning is underway for a December “Beer, Burgers & Carols” event at Gallagher’s. We’ll send the date & time via the weekly announcements. Stay tuned!

LONGEST NIGHT/BLUE CHRISTMAS WORSHIP SERVICE SATURDAY, DECEMBER 21, 2024 - 7:00 PM

While Advent is a season of hope and Christmas is a season of joy, not everyone feels hopeful or like celebrating. A Longest Night/Blue Christmas service may provide a time and place of solace during the often frenetic days surrounding the celebration of Christmas. We come together seeking healing and room to share grief, sadness, loneliness, or confusion when these emotions often feel out of place during the holidays. On this darkest day of the year, we come with all our feelings seeking the return of light and hope.

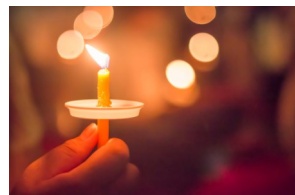

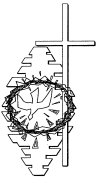

ADVENT SUNDAY WORSHIP SERVICES DECEMBER 1, 8, 15, 22 - 9:30 AM CANDLE LIGHTING READERS NEEDED!

We would love for our young adults and families to be part of the four Advent Sunday morning worship services by volunteering to lead the candle lighting readings. Please speak with Pastor Aaron or contact the church office if you would like to participate!

CHRISTMAS EVE CANDLELIGHT SERVICE TUESDAY, DECEMBER 24, 2024 - 4:30 PM

This year's Christmas Eve Candlelight Service will be on Tuesday, December 24 at 4:30 pm. Please plan to attend this wonderful music-filled service with friends and family members in an evening of celebrating the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ!
